BAHÁ'Í CENTRE HIRE POLICY

The Bahá'í Centre is a community hall for the hosting of activities that build capacity for the advancement and transformation of society. Activities are primarily religious, educational, artistic and administrative.

Please familiarize yourselves with our Hire Policy.

1. The Centre and its outside rooms are smoke-, drug- and alcohol-free.
2. The Centre is a space dedicated to social and spiritual events and within it, behaviour that complies with the highest standards of morality is expected at all times.
3. Events involving children must ensure that adequate supervision and all state legal requirements are met for the protection of children.
4. In consideration of our neighbours, no loud music after 8 pm.
5. Hirer has public liability insurance and is to share the certificate of currency prior to using the Centre.
6. Hirer indemnifies the Assembly for claims arising from their event.
7. Hirer shall be responsible for:
 - a. Returning the key to the Lock Box at the Centre;
 - b. Keeping rooms in a clean and tidy condition, and in the same state of repair as before the event and ensuring all rubbish has been deposited in the outside bins;
 - c. Ensuring all windows and doors are closed, and all lights, fans and aircons are turned off when leaving;
 - d. All breakages, loss or damage to the building, fixtures and/or chattels.
8. In the interests of health and safety, Hirer is required to report all injuries and incidents to the Centre Management immediately.
9. Hirer to familiarize the attendants of their event/gathering of the fire escape routes displayed on maps around the Centre. Fire extinguishers are provided for use in case of fire. In case of unnecessary use of extinguishers, the Hirer will be charged for refilling and inspection of the fire extinguishers and any damage caused.
10. No person may draw, erect, affix, alter or add anything to the Centre, inside or out, without the prior approval of Centre Management.
