

The Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of Townsville

65 Morey St, South Townsville, 4810

townsville@qld.bahai.org.au

BAHÁ'Í CENTRE USE POLICY

The Bahá'í Centre is an community hall for the hosting of activities that build capacity for the advancement and transformation of society. Activities are primarily religious, educational, artistic and administrative.

Please familiarize yourselves with our fair use policy.

1. The Centre and its outside rooms are a smoking, drugs and alcohol-free.
2. The Centre is a space dedicated to social and spiritual events and within it, behaviour that complies with the highest standards of morality is expected at all times.
3. Events involving children must ensure that adequate supervision and all state legal requirements are met for the protection of children.
4. The Hirer has a current public liability insurance and share the certificate.
5. The Hirer indemnifies the Assembly for claims arising from their event.
6. The Hirer shall be responsible for:
 - a. Returning the key to the Lock Box at the Centre
 - b. Keeping rooms in a clean and tidy condition, and in the same state of repair as before the event.
 - c. All breakages, loss or damage to any chattels.
7. In the interests of health and safety, the Hirer is required to report all injuries and incidents to the Centre Management immediately.
8. No person may draw, erect, affix, alter or add anything to the Centre, inside or out, without the prior approval of Centre Management.
9. Please do not leave personal belongings at the Centre. Personal belongings left at the Centre are solely the Hirer's responsibility.
10. Please do not leave food at the Centre.
11. No sleeping overnight in the Centre, as the building is not zoned for this activity.